Their home was built around 1900, & is the end unit of a cosy little row of houses, in a picturesque small and quiet street. It is a great location in its own right as well as being easy to access any kind of day trips. It is 10 min by metro to the city centre, while shopping & eating places are just round the corner, & 5 mins by bike to picturesque parks.

The Bavarian Alps is 1 hour by car, & they are surrounded by beautiful villages, cities and landscape, as well as the endless offerings of the Bavarian capital city Muenchen.

They have a nice little private garden enclosed with hedges. There are two swings, a sandpit, a slide and a children house.

The garden is quiet and you can hear the birds singing; the ideal place to relax after a city daytrip or for long evenings. They have garden table, chairs & a bbq.

The family have 5 bikes which may be used by house swappers.

Their church, of which one of them is a full time worker, is an ecumenical community. Info on their website:- www.agape.de The services are in German, but many people speak English & there will be a good welcome & great fellowship!
