This 1980's detached bungalow is two miles from Bletchley and three miles away from the thriving new city of Milton Keynes in Bedfordshire. There is a fantastic range of shops and enterprises catering for all ages and interests. This is a great centre for discovering many hidden treasures, not least Bletchley Park itself, home to the amazing 'Enigma'.

The house is a ten min walk to the nearest shop, and 15 to the nearest eating places. It is near to lovely countryside and lake walks as well as the city's facilities. There is off-road parking at the front of the bungalow.

A conservatory overlooks the private enclosed garden which has a large patio area, mature trees, shrubs and a summerhouse. There are garden chairs, table and barbecue.

St Mary's and St John's, Bletchley has 400 people attending morning service over two venues and 100 in the evening. Style of worship is midway between traditional and modern. There are a good number of midweek events and teaching, with a lively sense of mission throughout.
