It is a 15 minute drive to Chesham and the end of the Metropolitan line into London. 35 mins drive is Hemel Hempstead with the wonderful Snow Centre & Jarman Park Leisure complex, which now has an indoor caving and large climbing wall, & very easy access right into London

Great opportunity for a country break with trips to the Capital as well!

Their home is a small completely private annexe to a bungalow which was built about 30 years ago. It has a medium sized lounge & a small kitchen. There is no TV but there is a stereo with a wide variety of CD's, DVD's & wireless internet, so house-swappers could bring their laptop for TV viewing if desired. There is a large enclosed garden with table, chairs & a barbecue. There is use of 3 adult bikes. There is off road parking. The nearest shop is the village shop-2 mins walk & nearest eating place is 10-15 mins walk.

King's Church Chesham is affiliated to Willow Creek & linked to the Evangelical Alliance. It is a very friendly & welcoming fellowship. There is a good cross section of ages in the morning service when about 60 people meet for worship which tends to be contemporary in style. There are various mid-week house groups and other events for adults & children. www.kingschurchchesham.com
