The family live in Bishop's Cleeve which is a large & bustling village on the edge of the Cotswolds at the bottom of Cleeve Hill, in Gloucestershire. They are practically mid-way between Cheltenham & Tewkesbury; about ten minutes drive from both. This is a lovely place to holiday having so much to do & see in the area.
(see websites below)

This large semi-detached house was built in the late 1950's. There is a large kitchen / diner and a living room with high-speed cable, Xbox, Netflix, Wi-Fi. etc.. Renovation work has recently been completed on the kitchen/diner. (Photo left). There is off-road parking & the nearest shops & eating places are all within 10 minutes walk. The enclosed garden is mostly laid to lawn with a seating area & a trampoline. They have an electric car charger which house swap families are welcome to use .

St Michael & All Angels is a thriving Anglican Church where the worship embraces both traditional & contemporary styles. There is a good range of activities & events for all age groups, on Sundays and mid-week.
