This mid 1960's semi-detached house is situated on a quiet cul-de-sac in the large & thriving town of Swindon.

This is a great location to holiday having many wonderful places to explore such as the Cotswolds, Oxford, Bath and Marlborough as well as the beautiful Wiltshire countryside. See area websites below.

The home has off-road parking and is easy walking distance to local amenities. There is a fully enclosed rear garden with a slide and a variety of other outdoor & indoor toys, as the family has several visiting children. There is also a large decking area with garden table and chairs as well as a barbecue, a great place to eat 'al fresco' on a warm summers evening!

The family worship at the New Frontiers Gateway Church in Swindon. This is a thriving fellowship with 350 people attending across the two Sunday services. The church serves its local & Christian community very well with a variety of Sunday & midweek activities & meetings from all age groups.
