This home is situated on a quiet estate of bungalows in the suburbs of Newcastle. It is near to a main road with good access to the coast, A1 & A19 motorways. In fact beautiful open moorland and broad sandy beaches are within easy and quick reach of Newcastle. There is an efficient public transport system with local buses & Metro trains going to the city centre and the coast. Major supermarkets within 1 mile.

This late 1920's Dorma bungalow has off-road parking. The double bedroom is on the ground floor as well as reception rooms & the bathroom with: bath, shower over the bath, and toilet. Upstairs is the twin room which has access to separate bathroom with toilet & shower. Lots of children's toys and games are available.

The enclosed back garden is mostly laid to lawn with flower borders, has table & chairs, a water feature and raspberries & strawberries which house swappers are welcome to enjoy if ripe when they are staying! The south facing garden is quiet, not overlooked and is very relaxing.

The couple attend Heaton Baptist Church which is a large, informal, family-friendly fellowship with junior church & youth groups for 0 -18 yr olds. About 130 people attend the morning service and the style of worship tends to be contemporary with good Bible teaching. The church serves its local community well through a range of group activities for all ages. See their website:- www.heatonbaptist.org

A very nice house with a lovely garden, lots of flowers, plants en trees. Enough sites to go to in the surrounding of Newcastle and lovely beaches to go to. Newcastle upon Tyne is a big city with enough places to go out, restaurants, film, music and so on. It was top marks all round for this house-swap!

This was a truly lovely holiday both from the location point of view and the accommodation itself. A beautiful well equipped home, spotlessly clean; very comfortable bed. The fantastic home cinema experience was loved by all on wet days. The home is so conveniently located for city, coastal and country excursions, and you needn't go far to find beautiful coastline. The home owners gave us a warm welcome with very much appreciated goodies on arrival.
