This semi-detached house was built in the late 1960's and is situated in a quiet, friendly, residential area known as St Ninians. There are lots of local play parks and amenities nearby, lovely country walks and being at the top of a small hill there are fabulous views over the Ochil Hills and Stirling Castle. Stirling is a beautiful historic city, centrally located in Scotland. The city centre is a $\frac{1}{2}$ hour walk, or a 5 minute drive in the car. Surrounded by the wonderful Scottish countryside, with Loch Lomond to the west and the Ochil Hills to the north, you can access Glasgow or Edinburgh in under an hour. There is regular public transport both within Stirling and to Glasgow and Edinburgh.

The house is located just a 5 minute walk from a Lidl supermarket and other small amenities. There is off-road parking by the house. (House photos below) They have wi-fi, Netflix, Amazon Prime, Chrome cast etc.and lots of pre-school toys & games! They have a small enclosed garden with a grassy area and a patio with plenty of children's garden toys and patio chairs and tables for the adults. There are 2 hammocks and a hammock stand in the shed. The garden shed is large with 2 adult bikes which guests are welcome to use.

Pre-schoolers will be delighted to discover the toddler trampoline, Little Playhouse, toddler slide, water table & various bikes and scooters.

The family attend the Stirling Free Church of Scotland. It is a fairly new church plant in Stirling, with people from many different cultures, nationalities and church backgrounds. The service is fairly simple with a mixture of contemporary and traditional worship. It is a friendly, welcoming church and the people would want to get to know guests who were staying in our house and would be happy to help with anything if needed. www.stirlingfreechurch.com_
