This late 1960's semi-detached house is situated on a quiet road with other families. It has easy access by bus or car to the city centre, and the wonderful Northumberland coast and country side. The city itself has so much to offer the holiday-maker, as does the surrounding area.a great place to holiday. See area websites below.

There is a decent sized garden with a grass area as well as paved patio with garden table & chairs, and children will be pleased to find the sand-pit & other toys for pre-school age. The garden is fully enclosed. They have off-road parking and the nearest shop is a leisurely 10 minute walk ; nearest eating place is a short car or bus ride away. The local public transport is good and there is a bus stop near the house.

The family attend Cornerstone Church Newcastle which is an Evangelical Free Church; info on their website:- <https://www.cornerstonechurchnewcastle.co.uk/welcome>
About 100 people attend the Sunday morning services which celebrate a contemporary style of worship. They are a warm & welcoming fellowship, with meetings and activities for all age groups.
