This late 1970's terraced town house is in a great location at the top of a lovely long road, ten-minutes walk from Salisbury city centre and a 20 minute walk from the beautiful Cathedral. Around the corner is Wyndham Park, which offers a more scenic walking route into town and leads to the thriving Arts Centre with its own café & live music etc. There is so much to do and see in Salisbury for all age groups, and even more in the surrounding areas. See below & area websites.

While there is no off-road parking, house-swappers would be given the resident's parking permit during their stay, enabling street parking close to the house. More photos below. There is an enclosed walled garden with decking area, table and chairs, parasols, BBQ and small garden shed. The grass area has garden toys eg. water table, swing ball, footballs, hula hoops, water fun. (The garden gate has side access)

The family attend St Paul in Salisbury. This is a thriving Anglican church with around 400 people attending the Sunday morning services & 100 in the evening. There is a good mix of traditional & contemporary worship, and the congregation is welcoming and friendly. There are Sunday and midweek meetings & activities for all age groups. More details on their website: www.stpaulssalisbury.org
