This Victorian semi-detached cottage was built around 1900. It is situated on a residential road within a 2 minute walk of a field which leads to several lovely walks including The Devils Punchbowl at Hindhead. It is within 10 minutes walk of local shops & eating places.

The village of Haslemere is in an 'A.O.N.B.' (area of outstanding natural beauty) with many hills & valleys, numerous walks & beautiful landscape. Haslemere High Street has lots of individual shops, pubs and great places to eat. There are also shops in nearby Weyhill which includes a Tesco, a very good health food shop, cafés and much more. This whole area is a walker's paradise and throughout the year on Lion Green there are various events including French markets, Classic car rallies, festivals etc: It's a lovely place to holiday with so much to do & see for all age groups. See area websites below.

The train station is a 20 min walk with access and regular trains to London 50 mins & Portsmouth 40 mins. The south coast & Chichester are both a 40mins drive; good local bus service with nearby bus stop. The neighbours are very friendly and there is ample off-road parking. The enclosed garden is long, laid to lawn with planting either side and potted plants. There is a small veg patch & 2 sheds at the top of the garden. The patio area has table, chairs and umbrella. There is also a bench and another small table.

The couple attend the '3 Counties Church' Hammer, a Free church influenced by the Anglican HTB Church and also the Vineyard church. About 100 people attend the Sunday services which have a contemporary style of worship. This evangelical charismatic fellowship serves its Christian & secular communities very well, with meetings & events for all age groups.
