This family live on the upper floors of a detached building on the main street in the village of Kelty. It is situated near lochs amidst the beautiful Scottish countryside. They are in a wonderful location for hill walking, forest trails as well as gentle walks and scenic drives. Kelty is approximately 20 miles north of Edinburgh and 14 miles east of the coast at Kirkcaldy, 14 miles south of Stirling and 45 mins to St Andrews. Lots to do & see in the area, see area websites.

Built around 1900, the family occupy the upper two floors of this detached building, above shops. It is a large and spacious flat. They hear very little noise from the shops though there is a bit of noise from the pub on the corner, at week-ends.

They have an enclosed paved courtyard which also has space for off road parking They have garden table & chairs, a barbecue, trampoline with a net surround and basketball hoop. (Interior house photos to follow)

The family are an active part of Connect Church in Kilcady and this is part of Apostolic Churches UK. Style of worship in contemporary and in normal times, about 40 people meet for the Sunday morning service. More info on their website:-
