This detached Edwardian home is situated in the beautiful town of Cheltenham. It is set back from the road, on the edge of town (10 minutes walk into centre), near a park and green space, and is leading towards Prestbury village and Cleeve Hill beyond. The best of both - a 'rural town' setting! This really is a fantastic base for enjoying Cheltenham, Gloucester, the Cotswolds, Forest of Dean. A marvellous house-swap holiday opportunity! See below for area websites.

There are 3 downstairs reception rooms, plus kitchen/diner; downstairs WC; master bedroom ensuite, family bathroom; one further WC. Large hall, stairs, landing.

The large, private, garden is not overlooked and is mostly laid to lawn and is enclosed by trees and shrubs. There is a patio, garden furniture, gas BBQ, a few toys and a full-size, good table tennis table. For a 'townhouse' the garden is amazingly quiet, private, large and sunny! There is ample off-road car parking; the nearest shop is 200yards and a great selection of shops and eating places within ½ a mile.

Trinity Church Cheltenham is a large and vibrant town centre church . Pre-covid there were about 400 in the Sunday morning congregation and 150 in the evening. Worship is contemporary with great Bible teaching. Trinity is committed to serving the church and local community, which they clearly do, and very well. See their website; it's well worth browsing. www.trinitycheltenham.com

Sport and Leisure	Recreation centre with swimming pool, courts etc; public tennis and huge outdoor pool in town; 3 golf courses nearby;
Free children's play area	Yes, just round the corner - excellent new swings, slides, climbing frames etc in local park 200 yards from house
Local places of interest	Cleeve Hill (truly wonderful hill overlooking town, with walks, golf, horses, sheep, kites etc); theatre, cinema, shops in town; Cotswolds on the doorstep! Stunning towns, villages, and natural beauty.
