This Victorian semi-detached house is situated on a reasonably busy road and is on a convenient bus route. This is an ideal location for sightseeing in London as well as enjoying the peace and beauty of Kent. It's just 10 minutes drive to the lovely Kent countryside, and 20 minutes fast train to London Victoria, the best of both worlds!

Within 5 mins walk is a local shop, a Tesco store and an Italian restaurant. Within 30 mins walk, or 3 stops on the bus, is the popular Glades shopping centre, with a wide range of shops and eating places. They have off-road parking by the house.

The house has 2 reception rooms, 1 bathroom, TV with Netflix, Amazon Prime & a DVD collection for the DVD player. The large enclosed garden is mostly laid to lawn with shrubs and trees, garden table & chairs, a BBQ and a smoker. Children will be pleased to discover two trampolines, and a slide/swing set.

The family attend the independent, evangelical Grove Chapel Camberwell, which is half an hour's drive. About 70 people attend the morning service and 40 in the evening. The mostly traditional sung worship is accompanied by a grand piano and a cello. More info on their website:- www.grovechapel.org
Hayes Lane Baptist and Christ Church C of E, both in Bromley are closer to home.
