KEY INFORMATION...

Bedrooms available:-	One single bedroom.
Pets that live here:-	A fairly old and friendly cat who will need feeding 2/3 times a day and medication once a day (for back pain) . Also Tabby, an outdoor cat who just needs feeding.

This first floor, one bedroom annex was built about 20 years ago. It's above a house belonging to the landlords. They don't live there all the time, but a family member lives in a studio attached to the other side of the house.

It's a really nice property situated in a hamlet called Rushmoor near Tilford, a larger village in the lovely county of Surrey. It's just 15 minutes drive to Farnham and the same to Haslemere. The area is called the Surrey Hills. Ideally, a car is needed to stay here, although the nearby main road is on a bus route.

It's a small flat, slightly French style in that it has a kitchenette in one corner of the main living room, and a separate bedroom and bathroom. Being a hamlet, the outside of the property is very dark at night.

The property comprises several acres of land and the house-sitter is welcome to enjoy part of this area which is mostly wooded, but some laid to lawn with flower borders.

Farnham Vineyard Church farnhamvineyard.org.uk and St Albans Beacon Hill are both recommended as friendly welcoming churches. St Alban's Church Hindhead
The resident attends both of these churches, partly because she volunteers in one of them.
