This semi-detached house is situated just 20 minutes drive from the sea. It's in the heart of Wareham, an historic market town with Saxon ramparts set between two rivers. Close by are the mainline station, bus stops, cinema, restaurants, and the picturesque quay on the river. This is a wonderful holiday location, close to pretty villages and interesting towns, as well as the beautiful Dorset countryside, and the Jurassic coast to explore and enjoy.

Downstairs is the kitchen, one large reception room, a toilet and a wet room. The TV has Netflix & Sky. There is an attractive courtyard patio with garden furniture, a barbecue, & an allocated private parking space.

The couple attend Lady St Mary Wareham Parish Church to which about 100 people are in the congregation. Visitors are made very welcome.
