This late 1960's terraced town house is situated on a small street in the southern part of Zwolle. The attractive town of Zwolle, 120.000 population, is located on a river (IJssel) and is called a trading city. There are several trading cities along the river and they are easy to reach by bike or car. Nearby are the cities Kampen and Deventer which have very nice architecture.

In Kampen there are many sailing ships along the riverside. Although this is not a coastal area, for people liking to swim in a natural setting, or enjoy the beach, there is an open swim water quarry with lovely 'sandy beaches'!

And this is a good area for walking or cycling.

Their home is about 2 miles from the town centre. There are a good selection of shops, eating places & museums. Easy to reach by bike about 15 min., or car (only paid parking) and public transport (bus). Zwolle has also a large railway station, from which you can easily travel in each direction. In Holland you cannot buy a train-ticket anymore. You have to buy an anonymous public transport chip card and put money on it with your bank card.

There is a private garden (5 - 7 meters), partly with vegetables, partly with grass and it is surrounded by hedges. There are 2 bikes which house swappers are welcome to use.

Christus Centraal Zwolle is an evangelical fellowship. The services are all in Dutch, but house swappers will receive a warm welcome & many of the people speak English! About 80 people attend the morning service which has a good mix of traditional & contemporary worship. Their website (not in English) :- <http://www.cczwolle.nl/>

The church family always eat with each other after the service.....perhaps house swappers will be invited to do so also?

Sport's facilities	There is a swimming pool in town (2,5 miles) and also open swim water (quarry) (1 mile) with sandy "beaches" . Sports centres nearby as well.
Local places of interest	dinosaur-park / museums / zoo (Emmen and Amersfoort)
Entertainment/ arts	There are several market places throughout the week. A big theatre you can find in the city centre.
