This mid 1990's detached house is situated on a pleasant housing estate next to a conservation area offering wonderful opportunities for country walks and cycling to explore this lovely part of Brittany. The town of Fouesnant with good facilities is 7 km away, and it's just 10 minutes walk to the nearest beach which is beautiful! Fouesnant is a lovely sea-side resort. 15 minutes walk also finds a baker, bar and restaurant. The town of Concarneau is about 25 km away by road- a bit closer by the summer ferry. Their church in Quimper is 30 mins drive.

They don't have television as such, but a DVD and video player is available. There is a downstairs toilet. The small enclosed garden has table and chairs and is a relaxing space to enjoy a warm summer's day! In order to make the most of the area a car is needed. But some bikes are available for house-swappers to use. There is an occasional bus to Quimper.

The couple attend a small church in Concarneau and a larger evangelical church in Quimper. All services are in French, but visiting house-swappers will no doubt be given a warm welcome!

Sport and Leisure	There is a large swimming pool and other sports activities in the local town.(7km) Lovely local walks and sea swimming too.
Recommended places of interest	Coastal walks, pretty villages, fishing ports, the nearby town of Concarneau, boat trips to the islands, Oceanopolis in Brest, and many other tourist attractions including a number of festivals in the summer. See area websites below.
