This couple live in Nennig which is a lovely village in the “Region of the Three Frontiers”, on the Moselle River. France is 15 km, Luxembourg is 1 km and Trier is 50 km, so house swappers will have the opportunity to explore three countries here, as well as the beautiful Moselle valley for walking and biking- left. (Area websites below, & house photos))

The living area of this late 1940's semi-detached house, is on the first floor which also has a large balcony with table & chairs for enjoyable 'al fresco' meals on a sunny day!

The main bedroom with shower room & wc is also on the on the first floor, while the guest room with separate bathroom + wc is downstairs. The private partially enclosed garden, which is directly accessible via the backdoor, has table & chairs & a BBQ. Just behind the garden is the local Roman Catholic church of the village. They are 1 km from the nearest shops & eating places. More photos below

The couple attend an International church which is 20 km away and in Luxembourg. Services are all in English and there is a great mix of contemporary & traditional style of worship. About 250 people meet for the Sunday morning worship, and there is usually 2 services. All Nations Church of Luxembourg ANCL, is 15 years young and trying to reach English speaking people in Luxembourg. More info on their website:-
