This late 1970's terraced house is situated in a quiet residential neighbourhood. It's a wonderful location just '5 minutes walk to beautiful dunes where you can walk or cycle endlessly'. They are 15 min walk from the sea & there are lots of funny restaurants and bars on the beach. Even if the weather is windy and cold, one can still enjoy watching the sea from a warm place behind the windows of the restaurants. For families with children: In case of rainy weather, there is a covered jumping/trampoline hall and a covered play ground hall for smaller children. 'But no fear: we have more sunshine than the rest of Holland!' There is a good shopping centre and once a week a market. In the summertime several festivities are organised on the boulevard.

This is a great area to holiday in the Netherlands. There are many places to visit for all age groups to enjoy. (See area websites below) Bus stop is just around the corner. Buses go to Leiden Central station(40 min). Another bus stop is 10 min walk and the bus there goes to the Hague. Schiphol airport is 25 min. drive and Amsterdam 35 min. Cities like Leiden and The Hague are even closer. There is a railway station 5 km away with free parking. Parking in the neighbourhood is free. 'We have 5 grown-up children who are all willing to help you in case of any problem.'

The private garden is about 80 sq metres and mostly laid to lawn with garden table & chairs and a barbecue, which is old but quite serviceable. The couple love to sit & relax in the sunshine, or shade on a hot day. They have wind-breaks & beach tents to take to the beach if house-swappers would like to use.

The couple attend De Ark Church fellowship which is a Free Church. About 80 people attend on a Sunday morning where the style of worship is contemporary and the people are welcoming and friendly. More info on their website :-<https://www.dearknoordwijk.nl> which has an easy translate option. The services are all in Dutch, but the fellowship is universal and house-swappers will be made to feel very welcome!

Sport's facilities	Sport centres, swimming pools, tennis courts, a jumping centre (trampolines etc), midget golf. Several playgrounds in the neighbourhood.
Local places of interest	Late April: the coloured tulip fields just round the corner. And of course those beautiful typical dutch cities are never very far away! Theme Park Duinrell and the Gardens of the Keukenhof, (March- May)
