This late 1980's detached house is situated on a quiet cul-de-sac in a residential estate, edge of town. They are on a hill and it's just 10 minutes walk into the village of Bedwas which has all basic amenities, including co-op, post office and coffee shops. Four supermarkets are close by. It's a short drive/train ride to a number of towns, including Cardiff, Bridgend and Swansea. Caerphilly town is 10 minutes drive away and includes shops, castle and amenities.

This is a lovely location amidst beautiful countryside with riverside walks on the doorstep, and just 30 minutes drive to various beaches. It's an hour's drive Brecon Beacons. There are 2 parking spaces on drive.

Downstairs is the large kitchen/diner with seating area and utility room, a downstairs toilet, a separate lounge with wood burner for colder months and a snug with TV.

There is no TV license, but WiFi with various streaming channels including Netflix/Apple/Amazon, PS4, X-Box (4K Bluray player). As well as the family bathroom the double bedroom is ensuite.

There is a south facing balcony, and steps down to the good sized lawn including a trampoline. There are a number of pots with flowers and shrubs which house-swappers are asked to water if staying in a dry spell...thank you! A gravel path leads to the lower level with garden furniture. Young children may need supervision.

The family are part of Bethel Bedwas Chapel, info on their website:- www.bethelbedwas.org
