This good-sized detached home is situated on a quiet road in the village of Burnham.

This is a great location on the edge of Slough with great amenities, and easy access into London, and yet it's also near very pleasant countryside. It's a 15 minute walk to local shops, supermarkets, and restaurants; 10 minute drive to the station (Elizabeth Line into London Paddington, 35mins) and Windsor by car, 25 minutes.

The 1960s chalet bungalow has a large lounge and separate dining room with table for 6, a modern kitchen and large freezer. One double bedroom is upstairs, and the other is downstairs. The downstairs bed is a single with an optional pull-out comfortable single guest bed which together could be made into a large double bed. The downstairs toilet opposite the bedroom has a walk-in shower, and upstairs is an en-suite with shower bath. There is WiFi throughout and Virgin Media TV.

Patio doors open from the lounge into the attractive garden. A gas BBQ and garden furniture are available to house-swappers. The garden is laid to lawn with flower borders, vegetable plots and pots; in fact it would be appreciated if house-swappers could do some watering if staying in a dry spell. Fruit and vegetables may be available to pick and eat in season. 2 adults' bikes and 2 scooters (non-electric) can be borrowed. Over the summer of 2024 there is building work going on next door 5 days a week, 8am-4/5pm. We would ask them for quietness when guests are staying.

Dining room

The couple attend Cippenham Baptist Church, a small and committed fellowship of 'ordinary people who believe that Jesus is the one who shows us what God is really like in His love for us.' (Quote from their website.) <https://cippenhambaptist.org/about-us/>
Visiting house-swappers are sure to receive a friendly welcome.
