This terraced house is situated on a quite residential road just 5 minutes walk from the nearest tube station with quick access into central London. There are frequent buses running from nearby bus stops to areas all over London. It's a 20 minute walk from Stratford where this is a large shopping centre/restaurants/cinemas and the Olympic park.

This is the perfect location for exploring our capital city, rich in sport, art & culture, architecture, history & theatre and so much else! (See London websites below)

The house comprises a living/dining room, well equipped kitchen, bathroom with shower (no bath) all on the ground floor. Upstairs is a separate self contained flat with its own front door entrance. There is a small enclosed garden with patio and lawn, garden furniture and BBQ; also a sandpit and swing ball for children. A small playpark is 2 mins walk from the house.

The family attend 'Inspire St James' a thriving Anglican church in Clerkenwell.

Two services: 11am with about 150 people including a lot of families, and 4pm with about 80 people. They write.. "The church is not local to our house (about a 40 mins commute) but we have been attending for about 10 years. There are good, more local churches that we would be able to recommend".
